REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

- First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.
- Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

- You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

Re: KPOT's Intellectual Property

Dear Sir or Madam:

It has come to our attention that you are using the word mark KPOT in connection with restaurant services and restaurant carryout services and have registered the domain name "88kpot.com." We write to bring to your attention the conflict of your actions with intellectual property and proprietary rights of KPOT, Inc. (the "Company").

The Company is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 5,570,339 for the mark KPOT, which has been used in commerce for "restaurant services; restaurant carryout services" since at least as early as 2017 and was registered with the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office ("USPTO") on September 25, 2018. A copy of the USPTO record for this registration is enclosed for your review.

The Company is also the owner of U.S. Trademark Application Serial Nos. 97/023,119, 97/032,771, and 97/039,253, for the three marks KPOT KOREAN BBQ & HOT POT (and design) in connection with "restaurant services; restaurant carryout services"- all filed in September 2021. A copy of the USPTO records for these applications is enclosed for your review.

Over the past nearly five years, the Company has operated restaurants across the United States. At this time, the Company has at least 70 locations open and/or coming soon – some of them nearby you in Pennsylvania.

The Company's federal registration of the mark KPOT provides it with certain exclusive rights, including without limitation, the right to restrict the use of the mark, or a confusingly similar mark, in association with confusingly similar products or services throughout the United States.

Because of the virtually identical nature of the marks, the identical goods and services, and the related channels of trade, the Company objects to your use of the mark 88 K-POT in the United States and demands that you cease and desist any further use of the mark 88 K-POT in association with of restaurant services and restaurant carryout services and other similar goods and services, and demands that you make payment of damages that resulted from your use. The Company further demands that you immediately relinquish the registration of the "88kpot.com" domain to the Company.

We look forward to your prompt response within the next fifteen (15) business days indicating that you have commenced compliance with the above demands.

The foregoing shall not be deemed a waiver of any claim at law or in equity, which the Company may have against you or any other party with respect to this matter.

Please contact me at (612) 849-4653 to resolve this matter.

Sincerely,

Will Gu

Re: Word Mark: KPOT
Filing Date: February 20, 2018
Word Mark: KPOT KOREAN BBQ & HOTPOT
Filing Date: September 17, 2021 and September 22, 2021

Dear Mr. Gu:

This serves to acknowledge receipt of your September 15, 2022 letter and the attached information enclosed therewith. Our office represents 88 K-Pot Korean BBQ and Hotpot Restaurant. I have reviewed the letter and the information provided with 88 K-Pot Korean BBQ & Hot Pot Restaurant and reply on its behalf as follows:

Based on the information provided, it appears your client does not appear to have valid claim as you have asserted. Your client's word designation of KPOT KOREAN BBQ or HOTPOT appears to be neither trademarkable nor original. The term of KPOT or KOREAN BBQ or HORTPOT are glaring have its meaning in services or product and whether secondary meaning has been acquired, entitling such descriptive term to protection against unfair competition should be reviewed again by USPTO in granting trademarks. As to the possibility of confusing, we do not think so.

Our research also showed that in your application for registration; USPTO asked for consent as in DISCLAIMER REQUIREMENT: Applicant must disclaim the wording "KOREAN BBQ & HOT POT" because it is merely descriptive of an ingredient, quality, characteristic, function, feature, purpose, or use of applicant's services. See 15 U.S.C. §1052(e)(1); DuoProSS Meditech Corp. v. Inviro Med. Devices, Ltd., 695 F.3d 1247, 1251, 103 USPQ2d 1753, 1755 (Fed. Cir. 2012); TMEP §§1213, 1213.03(a).

Your organization had in fact responded to this issue by submitting a disclaimer in the following format: "No claim is made to the exclusive right to use "KOREAN BBQ & HOT POT" apart from the mark as shown. " The attempt by you to assert "Korean BBQ & Hot Pot" is violation of your registration.

Our review of the case of "In re 412 Public House, LLC Serial No. 88205268 United States Patent and Trademark Office, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board..." pointed out specifically "In re 412 Public House, LLC (T.T.A.B. 2020)" USPTO made it clear, that "Giving proper weight to each element of the respective marks, consumers will focus on "412" as the dominant element and use it, rather than the merely descriptive elements of the marks (" ;BBQ" and "PUBLIC HOUSE"), to distinguish the source of the services. While "; BBQ" and "PUBLIC HOUSE" have different definitions, they both carry the general connotation of restaurant and bar services. See In re Nat'l Data Corp., 224 U.S.P.Q. at 752 (finding that ACCOUNT and EXCHANGE, while not synonyms, have a similar monetary connotation in finding CASH MANAGEMENT ACCOUNT and THE CASH MANAGEMENT EXCHANGE confusingly similar). In their entirety, the marks convey a similar connotation and commercial impression because they share the same dominant element combined with similar usage of descriptive wording for restaurants and bars. See: In re 412 Public House, LLC (T.T.A.B. 2020). This is particularly true as to KPOT, KOREAN BBQ and HOTPOT, all three carry a general connotation of food products or restaurant services.

The term of KPOT is analogy or similar to K-pop (Korean: 케이팝; RR: keipap), short for Korean popular music,^[1] is a form of popular music originating in South Korea as part of South Korean culture.^[2] It includes styles and genres from around the world, such as pop, hip hop, R&B, experimental, rock, jazz, gospel, reggae, electronic dance, folk, country, disco, and classical on top of its traditional Korean music roots.^[3] The term "K-pop" became popular in the 2000s. Previously, South Korean pop music was called gayo (Korean: 가요; Hanja: 歌謠).^{[4][5]} While "K-pop" can be a general term for all popular music from South Korea or pop music from the country, it is colloquially often used in a narrower sense for any Korean music and artists associated with the entertainment and idol industry in the country, regardless of the genre. 88 K-POT is different than KPOT in any stretch.

Furthermore, my client's using of 88 K-Pot Korean BBQ & Hotpot its design or product does not appear to copy anything about your client's trademark design or service that might be considered trademarkable, nor [your client's mark] original.

With regard to your client's bare assertions relating to likelihood of confusion between my client's service and your client's service in the registration that were supplied along with your letter show the apparent differences in word or description between our respective client's services. The domination factor is 88, not KPOT, Korean BBQ or hotpot.

For the foregoing reasons, your client does not appear to be in a position to make its allegations, claims, threats and demands. Accordingly, please be advised that if your client insists on proceeding with the threatened frivolous legal action, my client will be forced to seek its own available remedies, including sanctions or challenge the trademark "or petitions to cancel and opposition with the U.S. Trademark Trial and Appeal Board particularly including but not limited to sanctions for your client's bad faith. All rights and claims of 88 K-Pot is fully reserved and not waived.

Very truly yours,

Fong Joe Hou
